Miss Martha J. Fienning

Martha J. Fienning, 66, 34 N.W. Fifth St., was dead on arrival Monday evening at Reid Memorial Hospital, after jumping from the North D Street Bridge, according to Coroner John Wambo.

A native and lifelong resident of Richmond, she was a graduate of the Reid Memorial Hospital School of Nursing in 1937 and formerly was employed at Reid Memorial Hospital and Avco. She was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church.

Survivors include three sisters, Esther Youngflesh of Richmond, Ruth Frazelle of Roswell, N.M., Edith Morris of Grosse Pointe, Mich.; four brothers, Richard Fienning of Richmond, Edward H. Fienning of Kankakee, Ill., Robert Fienning of Sherman, Texas, and Rudolph Fienning of Muncie; nieces and nephews.

Services for Miss Fienning will be at 1:30 p.m. Thursday at the Trinity Lutheran Church with Pastor John F. Stuck officiating. Burial will be in Lutherania Cemetery. There will be no public calling. Arrangements are announced by Doan & Mills Funeral Home.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Trinity Lutheran Church Memorial Fund.

Woman dies in leap from North D bridge

The death of a 66-year-old woman who was found under the North D Street Bridge Monday afternoon has been ruled a suicide, according to Wayne County Coroner Dr. John M. Wambo.

Martha Jane Fienning, Jenkins Hall, Reid Memorial Hospital, apparently jumped from the bridge about 4:18 p.m. She was found by police lying in the southbound lane of Sim Hodgin Parkway.

AID Ambulance rushed Miss Fienning to Reid Memorial Hospital where she was pronounced dead on arrival at 4:31 p.m. Wambo said Miss Fienning died from internal injuries sustained in the fall.

According to investigators, Miss Fienning had reportedly been depressed and in considerable pain due to medical problems.
