

God

grant me the Serenity
to accept the things
I cannot change...
Courage to change
the things I can and Wisdom
to know the difference.

Paul Fienning

Paul F. Fienning, 66, died Thursday at Rolling Hills Convalescent Center at Anderson after a long illness.

A former Richmond resident, he was a member of the Trinity Lutheran Church and had attended the Indiana School for the Deaf at Indianapolis.

Survivors include four sisters, Edith Morris of Grosse Pointe, Mich., Ruth Frazelle of Roswell, N.M., Esther Youngflesh and Martha Fienning, both of Richmond; four brothers, Richard of Richmond, Rudy of Muncie, Edward of Kankakee, Ill., and Robert of Sherman, Texas; aunts, nieces and nephews.

Private funeral services for Mr. Fienning will be at 10 a.m. Saturday at Stegall-Berheide-Orr Funeral Home with the Rev. John Stuck officiating. Burial will be in the Luthera-Cemetry. There will be no public calling.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Trinity Lutheran Church.
