To Santa

as dictated

Dear Santa Claus,

Will you please bring me a desk like Alida has and a little police set and a little davenport and a pencil box and a watch? Please bring me some little dogs and a big mother dog and a pair of overalls with straps on them. I would like to have a regular suit like Dad's with long pants, vest, and a coat. I need some shoes and I would like to have some high top boots. If you have a toy radio please bring it and if you don't have it, don't bring it. And that's all.

Hoping to see you soon, Godby
