

FIENNING-VON PIEN.

Marriage of Two Well-known People Last Evening.

The Fienning-Von Pien wedding occurred last night at the home of the bride's parents on South J street in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties and a large circle of friends. The bride was beautiful in a dress of white Paris lawn while the groom wore the conventional black and together they made a handsome couple as they moved to their respective places to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Herr Richard Werner, of Berlin, Germany. The Rev. Feeger, of St. John's Lutheran church, in a few well chosen remarks, pronounced them man and wife.

Mrs. Acton, caterer, of Eaton, O., served an elegant supper to which all did ample justice, while the Bon-Ton orchestra, with violin, clarinet and harp furnished the music.

The presents were numerous and beautiful and embraced a large variety of useful and ornamental articles.

After supper came dancing, singing and instrumental music and the festivities were kept up until a late hour, when the guests departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Fienning a happy and prosperous married life.

The young couple will go to house keeping at once at 708 South Eighth street, where they will be at home their friends after October 12.

Five Local Men, Each 70, Stage Party For Wives

Dec. 21, 1951

Five Richmond men who have been close friends for the past 50 years, and each of whom now is 70 years old, entertained for their wives at an informal dinner meeting Thursday night in the Beallview clubhouse.

They were Mr. and Mrs. George Fienning, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Niewoehner, Mr. and Mrs. John Von Pein, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pilgrim, and Mr. and Mrs. William Kaeuper.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nicklas, daughter and son-in-law of the Niewoehners, as a surprise provided a decorated cake for the occasion.

After dinner, the evening was spent in reminiscing and in playing sheephead, a card game popular among members of the South Side Improvement association, in which the men have been active for many years.

"There were lots of good times to recall," Niewoehner said. "And we had a lot of laughs."

We extend Christian sympathy to the family and all who mourn the death of George Fienning, one of Trinity's oldest members in terms of years. He passed away at his home Tuesday morning, November 23, 1965, after an extended illness. Services will be conducted Friday at 2 p.m. from the Stegall-Berheide-Orr Funeral Home with burial in Lutherania.
