

REFLECTIONS
from
Edith Louise Fienning Morris

August 1991

As I reflect on our family's history, it is clear that religion and short written pieces about values were important sources of inspiration. I want to share some of these.

George Fienning's Favorite Bible Verse:

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills from whence cometh my help.

Psalm 121:1

Frances Fienning's Favorite Prayer:

"Oh give thanks unto the Lord for He is good and His mercy endureth forever."

Ricka Fienning's Favorite Poem:

On the bedroom wall hung a poem entitled "Others." It talked about respecting, loving, and serving others. (I don't have a copy of this; but if someone does, it would be nice to include it here.)

Edith F. Morris - A Favorite Passage

(Taken from Elton Trueblood. Foundations for Reconstruction.
Waco, Texas: Word Books, 1946, p. 11)

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS IN VERSE

Above all else love God alone;
Bow down to neither wood nor stone.
God's name refuse to take in vain;
The Sabbath rest with care maintain.
Respect your parents all your days;
Hold Sacred Human Life always.
Be loyal to your chosen mate:
Steal nothing, neither small nor great.
Report, with truth, your neighbor's deed;
And rid your mind of selfish greed.